

The British Academy of Fencing

COACHING COURSE

Official Residential BAF Summer Course 2007

Date: Monday 16th July to Saturday 21st July 2007
Venue: Denstone College, College Road, Denstone, Uttoxeter, Staffordshire, ST14 5HN, England.
Cost: £360 Sterling. This fee includes full board accommodation and all course documentation
Deposit: £50. Sterling. Cheques made payable to the British Academy of Fencing

This course is designed for those interested in preparing for BAF Teaching/Coaching Examinations at all three weapons and all levels of ability, and for those just starting on the coaching ladder to those seeking to take B.A.F. Diploma Examinations.

Provision also exists for those with no particular desire to take examinations and who wish to attend the course either as a 'refresher' or merely to improve their coaching skills.

The course is not suitable for those who have never fenced before, you are required to provide your own fencing equipment, and the course will be conducted in English.

Should you wish to know more about this and other courses please contact:

Prof. Tom Etchells, 24 Honeysuckle Drive, Stalybridge, Cheshire. SK15 2PS.
Tel:+44 (0)161 338 3262

E-mail: courseofficer@baf-fencing.org
www.baf-fencing.org

The British Academy of Fencing organises coach education courses throughout Great Britain. These include 6-day residential courses, coaching mini-breaks, monthly courses and coaching workshops.

The Academy's Coaching Awards are respected and recognised throughout the world.